- A reminder that Book Week is next week. Please check the dates on the back of this bulletin, shared last week, for what is happening and remember to have some clean pyjamas for Friday!
- Parents are reminded that school is a completely smoke free area, including vapes. We are developing some signage to remind everyone of this but please avoid this on the pavements outside school as well.
- The link for Football Club (Y4 & Y5) will reopen next week so do not worry if you have missed it.
- Our Young Voices choir were amazing last night. Thank you to the staff team who gave up their time (and had a very late night). It was an incredible experience again.

Have a lovely weekend, Mr Wright

Key communications home this week:

- Toast for after half term for KS2 is available on ParentPay. Deadline Thursday 11.00am.
- Temporary Cleaning Position - information via Dojo.
- Newspaper Required for KS1 Art - via Dojo.

Book Week Timetable

Monday 10th Feb

- Book Week starts - we would like the children to learn a poem to recite by heart for the Friday. Some suggestions will be sent home but children can choose their own if they wish.
- Scholastic Book Fair will be available to KS2 in school from Monday and they will all have the opportunity to visit during the school day. £15 maximum spend - cash only please.

Tuesday 11th Feb

- EYFS and KS1 will visit the Scholastic Book Fair during the school day. £15 maximum spend - cash only please.

Wednesday 12th Feb

- KS2 have the opportunity to buy signed Tom Palmer books. Children will only be able to buy one each in the first instance to ensure there are enough for everyone. Their signing will take place after school on this day. Books are either £7 or £8 again cash only please.

Friday 14th Feb

- 'Bedtime Books' day so the children can wear clean PJS/Onesies with sensible footwear but please still ensure they bring their coats as they will still be playing out.
