

Weekly Bulletin 03.10.25

STAR OF THE WEEK
Rec	Caris for super work about the 'Three Little Pigs' and in our Letterland phonics lessons.
Rec/Y1	Eila-Rae for always having a positive attitude to everything in school.
Y1/2	Pollyanna for trying really hard with her reading.
Y2	Oliver for a positive attitude towards all aspects of school life! A superb role model in Year 2!
Y3	Finn for some super, entertaining letters to Paddington's Aunt Lucy and for always choosing to do the right thing.
Y4	Thandiwe for her amazing questioning during RE. You gave an excellent philosophical debate!
Y5	Ellen for always putting a huge amount of effort into everything we do.
Y6	Harper for some fantastic writing in our English lessons.
House	YELLOW
Silver leaf	Respect for Learning Jasmine S Y3 for walking really quietly to get something she needed when a member of staff was teaching.

- Junior pupils have explored online safety this week. It would be a great opportunity to explore this in more detail with your child, thinking about both the benefit from the technology but also keeping themselves safe.
- All pupils will need to wear PE kit on Friday as part of the handball festival.
- Reminder of dates for the diary:

Tuesday 21st October @ 9:10am - Infant Harvest Assembly (parents/grandparents invited)

Tuesday 21st October & Wednesday 22nd October 3:30pm-6:30pm - Parents' Evening (please note, pupils should not be present for these and there is no guarantee of supervision in school during these appointments)

Thursday 23rd October @ 9:10am - Junior Harvest Assembly (parents/grandparents invited)

Have a lovely weekend, Mr Wright
